

From the Dean

April 2019

We were blessed with a monumental number of concerts and community events in our area this past month. I hope you took the opportunity to attend a few, or perhaps several. It was a rich assortment of sacred and musical “moments”. I went from a concert by Stephen Hamilton to a church dedication at Peace Presbyterian to Kent Tritle’s and Gail Archer’s concerts to Lenten noon concerts to Belle Canto Women’s Chorus and to more Lenten concerts, and that is just a sampling of the 32 events we listed for March!

We have two remaining chapter sponsored events, Nathan Laube’s May 5 concert at St. Boniface and our annual banquet and installation service at Faith Lutheran on Monday, May 6. See attached article.

Please look ahead to our special event weekend January 25-26, 2020 when Tom Trenney will lead us in a Festival of Sacred Music. It is time to put this weekend on your calendar, whether you will participate as a director, choir member, or congregational singer.

May you find your Lenten journey contemplative and restorative.
