

Dean's Message for February, 2019

We are excited to tell you more about our Festival of Sacred Music planned for the weekend of January 25 and 26, 2020 which will be led by the nationally known pastoral, multi-talented Tom Trenney.

Upon visiting his website you will see and hear what Tom has been involved in as a performer, improviser, teacher, composer and choral director (note appearances at ACDA conventions). I participated in two of his presentations at the national AGO convention in Kansas City last summer, and they were both informative and inspirational.

Our Festival will offer an excellent opportunity for all participating singers to enjoy, learn, and together with the congregation, to be lifted up by the joy of making sacred music together.

We are now in the process of determining the shape of the Festival with Tom so that information can be given to our organists, accompanists, choir directors, singers and congregations soon!
